Preto Rodizio

How It Works

Meat, Feast, Repeat.

This is Brazilian rodizio, the way it's meant to be.

Start at our salad bar. Head back to your table and when you're ready, turn your table card to green. That's the signal for our passadores to come to you, carving a continuous selection of meats. Need a pause? Flip the card temporarily to red. No rush. This is your table.

Finish the way Brazilians do — with something sweet. Ask to see our house-made desserts.

Rodizio isn't just about eating. It's about taking your time, sharing the table, and enjoying the fire.

A discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to the bill on all menu items.
